ARCHDIOCESE OF JOHANNESBURG

Our Internal Weaknesses

- Inability to retain attention & participation of youth & young adults (alienating)
- Inadequate communication/teaching/homilies from the pulpit
- Insufficient communication between priests/deacons & laity
- Many lay Catholics are denied participation in the life of the Church by entrenched parish structures
- Challenges relating to the size of the archdiocese
- Lack of direction & priorities in response to RSA society
- Out of touch with the issues of the laity in their daily lives

WHAT IS A MISSION?

A definition of PURPOSE or

What are the assets, competencies & capabilities we will use to achieve our Vision?

PROPOSED MISSION

The Catholic Archdiocese of Johannesburg comprises 160 priests, 40 deacons and 38 religious orders, who provide pastoral ministry & leadership to a very diverse congregation of at least 1m lay Catholics, who adhere to the tenets of their faith to various degrees in 125 very differently resourced parishes & 50 schools predominantly in the Gauteng province.

In accordance with the Magisterium, we the Church seek to evangelize ourselves and respond to spiritual & human needs (through catechetics, contextual mission, education, pastoral work, the sacraments, lay movements & the nurturing of Parish communities) while providing moral guidance in a predominantly secular, increasingly youthful society, experiencing the challenges of dramatic societal change.
